Director's introduction

Shortly before the Spring Production I was looking for ideas for this production and my wife suggested "A Christmas Carol". This was a happy coincidence given that it's the bicentenary of Charles Dickens, the author of this classic Christmas story. I searched around and chose this adaptation by Shaun Sutton. Needing a cast of 28 I held auditions and unsurprisingly, not 28 turned up! Undaunted I cast the play and, as usual, the cast members rose to the challenge of playing more than one part. Well done to everyone! I would also like to thank Paul Johnson who, when I told him how I wanted the set, didn't take a sharp intake of breath and say no but went away and thought how it could be done. So a big thank you to Paul.

I hope you all enjoy the production and I look forward to seeing you all again in the Spring for our next production.
